CONCERT .- A fair-sized audience at-House last night for the benefit of Grace Church, but what the audience lacked in numbers it made up is ap strain the Co precistion. And justly so, for the concert was one of the best ever given in this city, every number being rendered in a manner which left nothing wantthis city, every number being rendered in a manner which left nothing wanting. The singing of Mr. Clifford Alexanders Wiley proved the feature of the evening, by the easy grace, the clear counciation, and the richness, clearness and power of his voice. Words are truly loadequate to describe Mr. Wiley's wonderful voice in the rendition of "The Rosary." Mr. Wiley sang several other solos, which were greatly appreciated and which received the highest commendation of the audience. The other numbers on the programme, which were greatly ecjoyed, were as follows: Bass solo, Rev. Charence Ernest Ball; soprano solo, Miss Catharine Weiderhold; bass solo, Mr. Louis W. Weaver; mezzo-soprano solo, Miss Catharine Weiderhold; bass solo, Mr. Louis W. Weaver; mezzo-soprano solo, Miss Catharine Weiderhold; bass solo, Mr. Louis W. Weaver; mezzo-soprano solo, Miss Catharine Weiderhold; bass solo, Mr. Louis W. Weaver; mezzo-soprano solo, Miss Lillian Abbott Lake, and a sketch, "A Quiet (?) Eveniog at Home," by Miss Artridge Variata Jacobs and Mr. Walter M. Graham. Miss Eith M. Pollard, of Washington, who was the accompanist of the evening, won favor with the audience by her light and firm, but graceful touch, ill the county by the Pennsylvania Rail-road Company to be relieved from keeping in repair that road, will be beard before Judge Nicol in March and not before Judge Love on Monday next, as has been stated.

PERSONAL —Miss Gertrude Pickin is visiting friends in Baltimore.

Miss Annie Fleming has gone for an extended visit to friends in Baltimore.

Mrs. A. M. Smith, of Middleburg, is visiting Mr. G. K. Pickett, in Fairiax county.

The Misses Herbert, at their home on Washingt ing, won favor with the audience by her light and firm, but graceful touce, and by her clear and distinct intonation. After the concert, the participants were entertained at a luncheon at the residence of Mr. Wm. H. McCuen, on north Alfred street. The repast was sumptuous and delicious, while the inviting manner with which while the inviting manner with which the menu was spread bore evidence of a master hand. The guests partook most heartily of the appetizing lun-cheon, and, after extending a unanimous vote of thanks to mine host for the kind reception, they departed on the 11:15 train for Washington. The furniture used on the stage at the concert was kindly loaned by Messre, M. CORPORATION COURT .- Judge J. K.

M. Norton presiding.—At 8:40 o'clock last night the jury in the case of Wm. F. Webster, indicted on Monday for as-F. Webster, indicted on Monday for as-saulting Mayor Simpson on the street of the city on September 28 last, return-ed a verdict finding Webster guilty of assault and battery and sentenced him to serve a term of ten days in the city jail and pay a fine of $35. The jury was out for over five hours. Some wanted a heavier fine and longer imprisonment, while others appeared any imprisonment while others opposed any imprisonment

Opera House.—"A Romacce of Coon Hollow," laid amid the moun-tains and glens of east Tennessee, comes to the Opera House, for one night, Friday, with a wealth of scenery and an acting company of the very best srtists. The play is produced with spe-cial scenery and mechanical effects, all of which are carried. It will be pre-sented here by a company of more than average ability, including several of the original cast. There are besides a vocal quintette and a troupe of Pickaninny dancers, whose antics alone are a feature. The press comments upon the play during its many tours are uni-formly enthusiastic in praise of the en-tertainment. "A Romance of Coon

[COMMUNICATED.

THE TRAMP QUESTION .- Speaking of tramps, their insolence, etc., reminds me that the other morning one of those elegant gentleman of the above named profession decided to breakfast with a profession decided to breaklass with a neighbor of mine in the First ward. It must be noted that the family were all seated around the hospitable board, when there was a light foot fall on the alley side of the house, and the gentlest impression of a knock at the dining room door. The master of the house-hold immediately with old Virginia hospitality opened up his house, treat-ing his new found guest much like the returned prodigal son, having him seat-ed at the table. Forthwith the cook formly enthusiastic in praise of the entertainment. "A Romance of Coon Hollow" is an attraction that all will desire to see.

POLICE COURT.—The following cases were disposed of today:
